v. COMMISSIONER OF INTERNAL REVENUE

The Court received and filed your petition on December 18, 2015. The Court served it on the IRS (respondent) on December 21, 2015.

(X) Filing Fee Paid.

(X) Request for Place of Trial at New York, NY.

Your Docket Number: Your docket number is shown above. You should include your docket number on any documents you send to the Tax Court. For privacy reasons, do not include your Social Security or Taxpayer Identification numbers on any documents you file with the Court, except on Form 4, Statement of Taxpayer Identification Number.

For Further Information by Mail: For a free booklet or DVD with information about how to prepare your case, complete and return the enclosed postcard or write to the Clerk of the Court at the address above. You can also get more information on the Tax Court's Web site at www.ustaxcourt.gov under "Taxpayer Information".

eAccess and eFiling: Information about how to register for electronic access (eAccess) to your case is attached. See the Court's Web site for information on Petitioner Access, eService and eFiling.

Change of Address: If you change your address, you must immediately notify the Clerk of the Court. If you fail to do so, you might not receive important notices from the Court and could lose your opportunity for the Court to consider your case. Enclosed for your use is a Form 10, Notice of Change of Address (also available under "Forms" at www.ustaxcourt.gov).

DO YOU NEED HELP WITH YOUR TAX COURT CASE

Dear Tax Court Petitioner:

The United States Tax Court is forwarding this notice because you have requested New York City, New York as your place of trial and you are not represented by counsel.

There are tax clinics in your area that may represent you free of charge if you meet certain qualifications. If a tax clinic agrees to assist or represent you, the tax clinic can advise and assist you in resolving your case by settlement or trial. The tax clinics are not part of either the Internal Revenue Service or the United States Tax Court. Languages other than English may be offered by a tax clinic. However, all Tax Court proceedings are conducted in English. The tax clinics that serve the city requested for your trial are:

The Legal Aid Society

Low Income Taxpayer Clinic

230 East 106th Street, NY, NY 10029

A nonprofit organization staffed by lawyers admitted to practice before the Tax Court. If you need representation call (212)-426-3013

Bedford Stuyvesant Community Legal Services

1360 Fulton Street, Suite 301

Brooklyn, New York 11216

A nonprofit organization staffed by lawyers admitted to practice before the Tax Court. If you live in Brooklyn and need representation call (718)-636-1155

You should contact a tax clinic as soon as possible to inquire about possible representation in your case. Delay in contacting a clinic may make it more difficult for the clinic to assist you or for you to properly prepare your case. The United States Tax Court does not recommend a particular tax clinic. However, the Court encourages you to contact a tax clinic.
