Faxed Documents

Dear Ms. Chen

Continuing my previous fax, I have checked the UPS website myself, and according to their tracking system, there seems to be a shipping delay. Quoting their system “

Koeln, 27/05/2016 4:37	Due to operating conditions,
Germany	your package may be delayed.
	/ Delivery will be rescheduled.

“

Hence, it seems the planned delivery today might not take place by 10:30 as scheduled.

So, I made another attempt to fax you the documents in the package, this time one by one. I think it was successful.

Best Regards,

Benny Hochster
